From Their Majesties Calontir

Greetings to the Stalwart and Steadfast Populace of Calontir!

As of this writing, Our Coronation is days away, and the planning has reached its finale. We hope that you enjoyed it as much as we have and must again thank the multitudes of people who worked so hard to make the whole day spectacular!

But enough about the past ...

His Majesty will sally forth to the Southern Regional Fighter Practice where great armored and steel training in both single and melee combat will take place. He hopes to cross swords with as many of you as possible.

Calon Con remains a virtual event, which means that everyone can listen in on their areas of interest without having to drive to do so. We hope all Our officers of each group attend to learn much and gain insight into making their jobs easier and more enjoyable. We plan to drop into a few meetings Ourselves.

The days are cooling, the sun sets earlier, and outdoor meetings and practices are drawing to a close. His Majesty would like to hear from every group that has an indoor practice site so he can come visit. He feels he has been remiss in getting to know more of the newer folk in Our great Kingdom, and therefore plans to make several mid-week road trips. A quick note to falcon-crown@calontir.org with the date, time, and place would be greatly appreciated.

And, speaking of practicing, Our Crown Tournament approaches on December 3rd. We will accept letters of intent to contest in Our Crown Lists until the end of Toys for Tots on November 19th. Please make yourself familiar with Kingdom Law, specifically Article VI. We encourage everyone to do so and look forward to a large turnout, both on and off the list field. Reigning over Calontir is not only a privilege, but a joy.

Finally, We appreciate all the support and offers of help we received as Heirs and continue to receive as Crown. This Kingdom never ceases to amaze us.

Logan & Ylva
Their Majesties Calontir

Expeditious

"Oh, I will leave nothing for tomorrow.
Urgency will see me through this dark day."
A black winged crow lands light, bringing sorrow.
From my purposed path to tempt me to stray.

To me he cried "morrow, morrow morrow."
The bright warm sun is here in which to laze
Eat, drink, be merry. No troubles borrow
Should want to live with in a rosy haze.

And I cried out, "today, today, today!"
Procrastination steals what joy one keeps.
Though laze happens, its participants pay.

So tackle your tasks with great heaps, sweeps, leaps.

Beneath my heel I crushed the black winged crow,
On I go, expeditiousness to sow.

Greetings good gentles!

November is upon us, and my time as your Kingdom Seneschal comes to its inevitable conclusion. The support I have received during my time in this office has been truly extraordinary.

I wish to thank the Crowns I've had the pleasure to serve for Your unwavering support through challenging times. Thank you to HL Faustus Cantilius Lupus, and the Social Media Admins, who remained stalwart in their duties through an increased number of trials during the lockdown period and beyond. Thank you to our Kingdom Advocates (His Grace Tristram of Lindisfarne, Her Excellency Conna ingen Ui Chearbhaill, and Mistress Halimah bint 'al Abbas 'al Tanji) for your exhaustive service to the people of this kingdom through many unique predicaments.

Thank you to my regional deputies, HL Asher de Lokwode, Lady Chiara di Paxiti, Lord Corban Meniguyeat, and Lord Robert "the Scot" MacLaren. Your assistance was invaluable to me. Thank you to Her Grace Aislinn Morcroft for her steadfast patience, and willingness to serve as my Emergency Deputy while I sought a successor. Thank you to His Excellency Saito Takauji for taking over for Aislinn as I continued to search for a successor.

Thank you to Countess Giulia Isabella da Venezia who agreed to serve as my successor. I am certain she will continue to serve the kingdom well as the next Kingdom Seneschal, as she has done in other capacities now for many years. Thank you to the many who have served as my deputies at the kingdom, and local, level these past two years. Little did we know what these two years would bring, but the work we did would not have been possible without each of you.

Every day I am grateful that Calontir is the kingdom I am fortunate enough to call home. I love you from the bottom of my heart. Together we are Calontir, and we will endure.

In Service,
Galen

Greetings good gentles!

We are still looking for a volunteer for Saker Herald - external submissions herald. This position shepherds submissions through the process of commentary and conflict checking. They work closely with Eyas Herald (internal submissions herald). The current Saker has been in the position for two years and will be stepping down at the end of December. This is one of the positions needed to remain a kingdom.

Requirements include

- * Internet access
- * excellent verbal and written communication skills
- * basic understanding of the submission rules (SENA)

Please reach out to me at goldfalcon@calontir.org to apply for the position or to ask questions about the office. Please let me know if you know a herald who would be a good fit for the job too. Time to rat out your friends!

S-ciao vostro,
Zaneta Baseggio

Greetings Calontir!

As we move into the winter months and travel slows, please put pen to paper, a brush to a canvas, or whatever form of art your pick as an outlet and please share it with your groups, and the Knowne World as a whole. Newsletters are always in need of content, nobody wants to read the same officer letters over and over. Flyers can only last for so long before eyes get blurry or we flip past it.

Creative content is what keeps us going, keeps us sharp, and engaged. It creates questions, and conversations. It helps people through cold days, or months. It can also inspire.

Please share that creativity.

In Service,
Anne
